

International Exchange Day

International Exchange Day is an opportunity for Apple Creek children and families to share their global diversity and promote cultural awareness. In December, a day is designated when children may bring items to share that represent their family's celebration. These items represent what is shared with their friends and family at this time of the year, such as a cookie or a card. Below are some examples of previously shared items.

